The 2016 Blue Mountain Wildlife Trail Race Series

Three events with three courses at each event to offer something for everyone – no matter your level of experience. Do one or do them all! We'll have a DJ providing post-race entertainment, a free hot lunch for all racers and volunteers, as well as activities for the kids. Check out the new BMW Trail Race Series design on both tech and poly/cotton T-shirts. There are cash awards for top overall finishers in the long courses, prizes three deep in 6 age categories for both males and females in the long and 5K courses, and first prizes in 5 categories for both males and females for the short courses. Online registration opens soon.

Registration Open 8:00 to 8:50 AM on Race Day. All Races Start at 9:00 AM.

The Bartram Breeze: Run the John Bartram Trail, a Rail Trail starting at the Kemsville Dam Rec Area and winding through the scenic Schuylkill Gap.

The Mad Dash: Run up and back down the Kittatinny Ridge on the challenging trails at the Hamburg Reservoir.

The Run To The Rock: Run on all of the Kemsville Dam Recreation Area's trails, starting at the Hamburg Park and running on the Therman Madeira Switchback to the Lowlands Trail to the Pulpit Rock Trail and everything in between.

All Proceeds Benefit Blue Mountain Wildlife, a 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Organization and Stewards of the Wildlife and Wetlands of the Schuylkill River at the Kemsville Dam in Northern Berks County, and will go toward Trail Construction and Maintenance, Educational Programs and Property Upkeep
