Course details

The course features a mixture of road, field and cinder trail running with modest hills. The start of the race will be just outside of the main gathering building of the camp, Garrett Hall. After starting on a paved road, runners will run around a small field, a cinder trail, and an orchard, nearing Camp Manatawny creek before running on Camp Road. The route returns to the camp through its main road, encountering a slight hill before the finish line by the main office.

About Camp Manatawny

Camp Manatawny is a private Christian camp operated by Delaware Valley Christian Camp, an association of members of churches of Christ. A Board of Directors, elected from the membership of DVCC, oversees all aspects of the Camp, including the facilities, policies, programs and finances throughout the year. Each week long session is managed by a volunteer director who assembles a volunteer staff intent on making each camper's experience as rewarding as possible.

The camp is open to young people of all races, nationalities and religions. Manatawny exists to provide a wholesome and enjoyable camping experience that helps develop young people spiritually, mentally, physically and socially in the steps of Jesus. (Luke 2:52)

Camp Manatawny is a special place! It has a great history of rich experiences, lasting friendships and meaningful learning. Some of the activities planned during the various sessions include: Bible classes, swimming, crafts, archery, gun safety & target shooting, hiking, athletics, group games, horseback riding, daily worship and more. For more information, visit www.manatawny.org.

Camp facilities are available for rent year round! Call 610-689-0173 for more information.
