

'Ghouls & Fools'

10K (more or less) Nighttime Trail Run

Sat. Night, Oct 22, 2016 - 7:00 PM (EST) - Reading, PA

EARLIER DATE THIS YEAR BUT THE SAME OLD SILLINESS

"We Provide the Organization - You Provide the Illumination"

When they made "The Wizard of Oz" in 1939, the people that played the Munchkins, folks with families to feed & mortgages to pay, were paid $50 a day. Now, in 1939, that was a nice paycheck. Still, the producers of the movie were paying Toto $125 A DAY!! Worse yet, when Toto would poop on the soundstage floor, very little was said. But the ONE TIME the representative of the Lollypop Kids did the same, BOY, did the flying monkeys hit the fan that day!! Now, we at Pretzel City are big advocates of "Rover Rights" and we truly believe that "every dog should have its day". But to pay a dog 2 1/2 times the amount you pay adults with a family and bills just doesn't seem to make any sense!! As an aside, equally nonsensical is the fact that the snow they covered the actors and stage with in the "poppy field" scene was actually "asbestos". Ah, if the EPA had only known THEN what we know now (which would have been hard since the EPA was founded in 1970, a little too late to save the tin man from a life in an iron lung. No, scratch that, he HAD iron lungs)! Now, ANOTHER thing that just doesn't seem to make any sense is that 250-400 people show up each fall to run a pitch dark trail just for the chance to drink unique oncourse beverages and listen to a lederhosen-clad accordion player sing dirty ditties afterwards. This event, the Ghouls & Fools Nighttime Trail Run, is one of the most popular nighttime trail runs in America. You run it in the pitch dark thru the woods overlooking Reading, PA, using only the light you provide from your headlamp, cell phone, flashlight, or tooth whitening. It uses some of the nicest and cleanest trails on Mt Penn but even the cleanest rustic trails in PA are littered with rocks & roots, downed trees, rough footing, fallen runners and used birth control supplies. Yet, fear not!! It's so well marked with reflecting tape & glow sticks that even your directionally challenged spouse could follow it, no matter how much you WANT them to get lost. There may even be some Halloween stuff hanging along the way too, just to make it as "spooky" as an incorrect pregnancy test. This event normally draws some very talented runners. But it ALSO draws people that measure their 10k time in "moon cycles" rather than "minutes". Come see what happens in the woods after dark because it's FRIGHTENLY FUN! And dress crazy; Halloween is JUST around the corner and we have awards for the best attire!! NOTE: YOU ALONE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR WELFARE DURING THIS RACE. You think we're coming out in the dark woods to find you if you're hurt or lost? FAT CHANCE! If you get lost, which you won't, head towards the well-lit Pagoda at the top of the hill and ask how to get back to the Liederkrantz. If dinged, drag your bleeding corpse to an aide station. Since this race requires a certain degree of common sense & semi-maturity, we discourage those under 18 from doing this race (16 & 17 year olds OK to race ONLY IF a parent is present at the race site, entries below 16 MUST have someone run with them). Other discouraged from coming are those who bought into the Philadelphia's Archbishop's declaration that divorced Catholics that remarry must live together like "brother and sister" if they want to receive Communion. Also discouraged from entering is anyone who has purchased/downloaded a Britney Spears song in the last 10 years. WHY would a music lover DO that????
